

Bio

Naresh Kumar, PhD, is a Professor and Head of Entrepreneurship Education, Consultancy and Research at Global Entrepreneurship Research and Innovation Centre, Universiti Malaysia Kelantan. Prior to joining UMK, he was the Head of Programme (MBA and MMIT) at the Graduate School of Management (AACSB Accredited), Universiti Putra Malaysia. He teaches strategic entrepreneurship, human resource management, organizational behavior, and research methods at postgraduate and undergraduate level. His primary area of expertise is human resource development, and his research interest includes entrepreneurship, workplace learning, and organizational innovation and change. He has published over 100 journal articles, conference proceedings, and seminar papers on organizational and management-related studies. Naresh Kumar has supervised to successful completion of many Doctoral students in the capacity of chairman and supervisory committee member. His professional affiliations include the Manchester Business School, University of Manchester (Research Fellow), Malaysian Institute of Management, Academy of Human Resource Development (USA), Academy of Management (USA) and Fellow of National Institute of Human Resource Management, Ministry of Human Resources Malaysia. In addition, Naresh Kumar has conducted numerous soft skill training programs, both in the public and private sector. To a large extent many students and professionals from both private and public sectors in Malaysia and abroad have benefited from his teaching, training, consulting and coaching. He may be reached at nareshmy@gmail.com / naresh@umk.edu.my